I suppose we are in a (kind of) holding pattern here in District 2, practicing diligently for when Fiddle Season begins and moving the numbers around to make the budget balance. Hmmm - the "rock and the hard place" choice of raising Fiddle Camp tuition or new annual assessment has us in a bit of a quandry, but the donations gained from those who contributed in memory of our friend, Les Wolff, should be enough to get us through the summer. If not, we may have to hold a bake sale, or a darts tournament. Speaking of Fiddle Camp, those of you who aspire to a scholarship should be finishing up your applications, which should be submitted to Mr. Jim Adams at barefootmusic@me.com no later than March 24, in order to submit the final list to the Camp Hierarchy by April 1st. We hope to see a lot of youthful enthusiasm at Fiddle Camp in July!

District 11 held their monthly meeting and jam on February 16th. It was a good jam and we had possibly the biggest audience that we have had at one of our jams. With it being Valentine's Day just a couple of days earlier, there were quite a few love songs performed at the jam. There were a number of people in the audience who have not been at one of our jams before, and they seemed to enjoy the program.

District 11 doesn't have anything other than our regular monthly scheduled play outs in the near future.

District 12 anticipates providing youth scholarships for participation in the 2020 Moses Lake Workshop in July. Youth scholarships for the Workshop are for WOTFA members only and will pay tuition for a Workshop class. Subsidies for meals during Workshop week are under consideration at this time and may or may not be provided. Please contact Daryl Wuennecke at (509-948-2955) if you would like your child or know of a child to be considered for a youth scholarship to the summer Workshop so we can get an idea of how many kids will be requesting scholarships.

Never been to a monthly business meeting? Then the Sunday March 8 meeting would be a good one to attend. In addition to the regular conduct of District 12 business, we will be hosting our first -ever instructional workshop for mandolin, and feature our own Shawn Hughes as the instructor. Anyone that has heard Shawn on the mando knows he has a lot to offer. This event will occur, weather permitting, from noon to 2:00, immediately before the regularly scheduled jam and business meeting, at the same location (Trios Adult Day Services building). Cost is free to WOTFA members and $10 for nonmembers, so bring a friend. In the event of inclement winter weather at this time, please check with District 12 Chair Joe Gunter (509)948-1772 before venturing out in case it becomes necessary to cancel the Workshop for safety reasons.

The March mostly monthly Round Table Pizza Jam, and pizza jams in general, will be discussed at the Sunday, March 8 Business Meeting,. If it is decided to hold a March Pizza Jam, it would occur on Friday, March 20, 2020, at the Richland Round Table establishment located at 1435 George Washington Way (SW corner of Torbett and GWay.). Note that this is a change from the former Leslie Road location, which no longer welcomes us to play there. The music would start about 6:30 and end by 9:00 PM. Call Jim Harter (509-551-8522) for further info.

Spring is coming! The snowdrops are up and tree edges are beginning to look bristly. I heard the first white-throated sparrow and maybe even a varied thrush!

Workshop is coming too! Be sure your membership is updated, and go online and start figuring out which class you want to take this year. At our last business meeting, we had 10 adults attend – a record number for many a year. It was heartening, with a short meeting, food good, and very fun jam.

But D16's hot breaking news is that Chad has made a District 16 Facebook page! I don't know exactly what to do with it yet (am awaiting my Facebook for senior dummies books to arrive) but folks seem to be noticing and joining! We need some good pics of jams, for one thing, and I don't know what else yet. Take a look, folks! You too can actively participate.

Also, if you have not looked lately, the "new" WOTFA.org site is up and running. Lots of good links (one to the workshop) and info and tunes. WOTFA events are in the right-hand column, updated as they happen (of course someone has to enter them first, so this info will be expanding). I hope I have gotten D16's jams and business meetings in this column, and will be working towards getting our playouts there as well.

That's it for now. Our next business meeting will be Sat. 3/21 from noon till 4:30 or so. We will be considering (and hopefully even voting on) donations to the contest and the workshop. I know the food and jamming will be good. Y'all come!
