Saint Anne's Reel

2/1/2023 – Author: Kitty Steetle

SAINT ANNE'S REEL

The musical score for Saint Anne's Reel is written in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff contains measures 1-4 with chords D, G, and D. The second staff contains measures 5-8 with chords G, A, and two first endings (1 D, 2 D). The third staff contains measures 9-12 with chords D, G, A, and D A7. The fourth staff contains measures 13-17 with chords D, G, A, and two first endings (1 D, 2 D). The piece concludes with a final D chord.

The well-known tune, St. Anne's Reel, is believed to be French Canadian, as the first recording came out in 1927 as Quadrille du loup garou – 4ème partie by Montreal fiddler, Willie Ringuette. The tune was recorded again in the next few years under the titles, Reel des esquimaults and Reel lune de miel by Joseph Allard and Isidore Soucy respectively.<sup>[1]</sup> St. Anne' most likely refers to the Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue municipality on the western end of Montreal.<sup>[2]</sup>

St. Anne's Reel is very popular among American Old Time, Irish, and Canadian players probably because of the tune's ability to be elaborated to fit the needs of the situation (e.g., instrumental improvisation or dance steps) while remaining identifiably St. Anne's Reel. I believe the reason is twofold: melodic rhythm and harmonic progression. St. Anne's Reel's melodic rhythmic motif of quarter- 6 eighth notes (measure 2 in this version) can (and will) be moved around to other measures as the player decides. The IV-V-I harmonic progression (the G-A-D chords in measure 7-8 and 15-17) can easily elevate the simplest theme or reign in the most elaborate of variations. Saint Anne's Reel is a tune that all levels of playing can make their own.

Happy New Year!

2/1/2023 – Author: Katie Gotshall

Happy New Year Musicians! So much has happened in the last couple of months, I know I'm going to forget something, but I'll do my best.

Fiddle Camp 2023 is on track! Check Corrine's report for the latest on instructors and classes.

I finally got the new WOTFA brochures printed. I have plenty of them, so if you would like me to send you a batch of 25, or 50 please let me know (Clarinet.KatieG@gmail.com)! You can leave them at your local music shop, give a few to your favorite instructor, or just leave them where you think others might find them. I also still have general business cards available if you want/need any of those to drop in your case.

I don't know about all of you, but I have definitely enjoyed everything opening up again! I'm taking Ruthie Dornfeld's string band class at Cornish, I'm enrolled in lessons with two viola teachers, I enjoyed the Norwegian workshop with Jeff and Jane last weekend, I've attended 2 contra dances, and last time I looked at my calendar to book a social event with someone, my first available evening was two weeks out! I thought it was just the holiday schedule that had me hopping, but apparently it's my new normal!

Like most of you, I was very sad to hear about Vivian's passing, but I'm glad she's no longer in pain, and I know that somewhere she's making music with Phil and all the others again. Everyone has a Vivian story, and nearly everyone's speaks of how accepting and inviting she was. I heard about her house jam, but was somewhat terrified to even approach it. I didn't think I was nearly good enough, and (as most of you know) I play clarinet as my first jam instrument. I emailed her to ask if it would be okay to come, and unlike some that I have interacted with, she was unhesitatingly inviting. She began by pointing out that back in the days of western expansion – when most of this music arrived out here – people simply played the instruments they had. It didn't matter what instrument that was. She really believed that Old Time is about the music, not about the instrument, and that alone made me feel so much more welcome than I ever dreamed. I feel absolutely honored that I was able to participate in her parlor jams, and I loved every single one that I attended. I hope to honor her memory by always reaching for more history, and always being accepting and inviting of new people.

District 2 Report (Ferry, Lincoln, Pend O'Reille, Spokane, and Stevens Counties)

2/1/2023 – Author: Kyle Peterson

We are headed into the new year with great anticipation that some of the fun we missed over the past couple of years will be attainable again. It is kind of strange, that over the period where I had more time at home, I didn't practice nearly enough, but now that there is a chance to play with others, I am more inclined to sit down and practice. All of the public venues that were shut down over the past couple of years – Portland Old Time Fest, Wintergrass, Olympia Old Time and several festivals grouped around a city park or venue appear to be resurfacing. Whether that works for everyone or not, I hope we will all find more chances to play and get excited about playing in groups again.

At the last meeting we tried a circle Jam; and it went well Sarah shared. Agreed, need more folks...so...We are actively inviting others to join us in music and audience, so your invited!

Denise Shares :"I always enjoy the Senior Center luncheon music. The audience always enjoys the music- some even get up and dance. The audience starts to enjoy lunch at the half hour, but still stay interested in the music. Thanks to Danny and Gary, Sarah has help setting up and taking down the equipment, which is quite a strenuous job, with lots of chords and monitors and speakers. I always appreciate the lunch and companionship of folks to eat lunch with. Denise."

District 6 Report (King County)

2/1/2023 - Author: Jenny Swanson

Welcome to Feb. 2023! Seemed like the holidays and the first month of the year went flying by.

Our Christmas party in Dec. was a great success! We had good attendance with people of all ages and abilities. A few people we didn't expect came and it was great to see them after a long time away. The food was good and we sang and played many Christmas carols as well as other old time music. It's so nice to get together and enjoy each other's company. I've included a few pictures that show the festivities.

In Jan., we had our first scheduled meeting and jam on the 7th which was also well attended and enjoyed by all. It was very neat to be again surprised by people coming to this jam who haven't been very regular. (It's okay to not be a regular, we love it whenever you can make it.) Seeing and playing music with everyone was really great! Every person brings something different to the jam and we have to keep on our toes to play together well. During the meeting, Jack Hadfield stepped down as secretary and Ena Birkland stepped up. We thank Jack for his helpful service in this capacity and anticipate Ena doing a great job in the future. We appreciate both of them as they have been involved over so many years. The following pictures are from Jan. 7th.

In other news, we send our condolences to Ena for the loss of her older daughter. We missed her at the Christmas party because she was at the funeral. Our thoughts and prayers are with Ena and the rest of the family.

Also, we are saddened by the death of Vivian Williams on Jan. 6th. What a wonderful, giving woman she was and such an asset to our organization and district. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her family and close friends. I suggest that in memory of Vivian, we all practice more and help the new people as we can.

Remember, all are welcome at our meetings and jams. Come anytime you can. The WOTFA.org website has all the information.

Till March,

Jenny Swanson, timbuktoe@yahoo.com

District 11 Report (Grant & Adams Counties)

2/1/2023 – Author: Charlie Root

District 11 has kept busy throughout the winter. We've had snow and some bad weather at times, but we haven't had to cancel any of our playouts so far. Hopefully that will continue. We had our January meeting and jam on January 15th. It was a good jam, with a good turnout of musicians and a good audience. We've always been well received at our playouts, but it seems like since the covid people are even more excited to see us come. Everyone is glad to see things getting back to normal again. We do not have any additional things scheduled at this time, but we are getting very close to where we were before things shut down, and hope to add another playout or two.

District 16 Report (Snohomish County)

2/1/2023 – Author: Dianne Gooch

Our jam sessions continue and the group of jammers have a good time on the 2nd & 4th Friday nights, 5:30 – 10:00 pm (or a bit later) at the Sisco Heights Community Club, 13527-99th Ave NE, Arlington, WA 98223. We have resumed having coffee available. That keeps us going with music for many hours.

Our next WOTFA Midway Jam will be Sunday, February 26, 1:30-4:00 pm, at the Lynnwood Library (19200 44th Ave W, Lynnwood). We had a record number of 21 musicians at our January jam. We have a great time playing fiddle tunes, bluegrass tunes, some swing tunes and being challenged with new tunes. We are thankful to the Lynnwood Library for freely welcoming us to use this great room. Other districts might want to check in with their local libraries to see if a room is available without cost.
